

DAILY INCIDENT REPORT

July 30, 2021

Arrests

Armed Robbery – On July 28 at 12:25PM, officers responded to investigate a larceny that was reported to have occurred at the Lowes located at 13720 Smoketown Rd. in Woodbridge (22192) at approximately 6:30PM on July 27. An employee of the business reported to police that a woman, later identified as the accused, pushed a cart containing merchandise over to the self-checkout where she began yelling and being confrontational with an employee. At one point during the interaction, the accused retrieved a canister of pepper spray and threatened the employee with it. The accused then took the unpaid items and left the store while continuing to hold the pepper spray. At no time during the encounter was any physical contact made between the accused and employee. The accused was observed on video surveillance entering a gold Toyota Camry and fleeing the parking lot of the business. A patio heater and propane tanks were reported missing. Following the investigation, officers obtained arrest warrants for the accused, identified as Lakiesha Ruth MORGAN. On July 30, MORGAN was located and taken into custody by members of the Howard County Police Department.
